Eric Tuchmann Receives ABA International Law Section's Outstanding International Corporate Counsel Award

American Arbitration Association®- International Centre for Dispute Resolution® Executive Recognized for Contributions to Legal Profession & Furtherance of the Practice of Law Internationally

NEW YORK, N.Y.—May 23, 2023—The American Arbitration Association® (AAA®), the global leader in arbitration and mediation services, along with its international division – the International Centre for Dispute Resolution® (ICDR®), announces that Senior Vice President, General Counsel, and Corporate Secretary Eric Tuchmann recently received the American Bar Association (ABA) International Law Section's Outstanding International Corporate Counsel Award. Mr. Tuchmann was awarded this prestigious honor at the ABA International Law Section's Annual Conference in New York City on May 3, 2023.

The ABA International Law Section's Outstanding International Corporate Counsel Award is given to a Section member who is a practicing attorney employed by a company or other entity as an in-house counsel for their sustained and outstanding service in the field of international law. Mr. Tuchmann was presented with this award by ABA International Law Section Chair Marcos Ríos Larrain, and Past Section Chair and ABA Rule of Law Institute Board of Directors Member Ken Reisenfeld. Mr. Reisenfeld highlighted Eric's contributions to leading global arbitration and mediation initiatives at the AAA-ICDR for more than two decades, and cited his leadership in amicus filings, and legislative and policy initiatives.

“Eric has advanced the effectiveness of cross-border alternative dispute resolution and is a thought leader in the field,” said Bridget M. McCormack, President and CEO of the AAA-ICDR. “His deep commitment to promoting fairness and cooperation in resolving international disputes has been a catalyst for many of the AAA-ICDR's innovative programs and services offered throughout the years. We're excited for the continued growth of our international division under Eric's leadership.”

“I am deeply honored to receive the ABA International Law Section's Outstanding International Corporate Counsel Award,” said Eric P. Tuchmann, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of the AAA-ICDR. “The award is also an important recognition of the contributions the AAA-ICDR has made in the field of international arbitration and mediation, as well as the dedication and hard work of the legal and ICDR teams. It is a testament to our commitment to providing strategic counsel and legal expertise to the AAA-ICDR, and I am proud to be a part of a profession that plays such a critical role in shaping how disputes are resolved domestically and abroad.”
