

New Service: AI-Powered Transcription

- Less than half the cost of traditional court reporting
- Human-checked transcripts
- Available for hearings, depositions, and other events

The AAA-ICDR is offering a powerful new technology that makes transcription practical for cases of any size.

Delivers 99% word accuracy. It uses powerful AI voice recognition and is human-edited in the background, providing results comparable to the best human stenographers.

Final, edited transcripts are delivered within 3 business days. Transcript pricing includes a complimentary rough draft available within 24 hours and final transcripts for all arbitrators.

This service is fully compatible with virtual, hybrid, and in-person events. It is always available, so you can count on it for your most important proceedings.
