AAA-ICDR® Recognized as a 2025 Best Remote and Hybrid Workplace in America

NEW YORK (Nov. XX, 2024)—The American Arbitration Association-International Centre for Dispute Resolution® (AAA-ICDR) has been named to the 2025 Best Remote and Hybrid Workplaces in America list by Best Companies Group. The award recognizes companies that excel in creating effective remote and hybrid work environments across the United States, highlighting their commitment to flexible and inclusive company cultures.

“In today’s economy, top employers know that unlocking the full potential of their people—whether on-site, remote or hybrid—is essential,” said Eric Dill, AAA-ICDR senior vice president and chief people officer. “We’ve built a thriving culture, with great teams working beyond traditional office spaces, and we’re honored to be recognized as a leader among companies that provide flexibility to employees while maintaining high client satisfaction.”

Best Companies Group managed the registration and survey process, analyzed data and used its proprietary algorithm to determine the final rankings. The evaluation considered each nominated company’s size, workplace policies, practices, demographics and employee survey results, which measured the employee experience. According to their algorithm, final scores determined which companies were recognized and which ranked at the top of their respective categories.

The AAA-ICDR will learn its placement when the rankings are announced on Jan. 24, 2025. For more information about Best Companies Group’s Best Remote and Hybrid Workplaces in America 2025, visit <https://bestcompaniesgroup.com>.
